Note:

1. The travel agency shall not be held liable for compensation for itinerary changes, delays, or attraction closures caused by force majeure events (including but not limited to weather, traffic congestion, flight/train delays or cancellations, government actions, natural disasters, epidemic control measures, major festival activities, etc.). We will actively coordinate and provide alternative solutions to minimize the impact.
2. The tour guide has the right to reasonably adjust the sequence of attractions based on practical situations, subject to obtaining consent from the majority of guests.
3. Upon request, we will endeavor to assist you in finding suitable prayer facilities during the itinerary (e.g., when passing by a mosque). However, due to constraints imposed by the schedule, transportation, and operating hours, we cannot guarantee fully convenient facilities will be available at every prayer time (Salat times). Please inform your tour leader of your needs in advance. We will try our best to assist.
4. During free activity periods specified in the itinerary, guests are solely responsible for their personal safety and the security of their belongings. The travel agency does not recommend that guests visit establishments without formal business qualifications or that pose safety risks to participate in activities. Any incidents occurring during these periods are the guest's own responsibility.
5. During periods when guests do not participate in group activities or engage in personal excursions outside the itinerary, they shall assume full responsibility for their personal safety and property. The local tour operator shall not be liable for any incidents occurring during such times.
6. You need to keep your luggage with you on the high-speed train.
7. Entrance tickets are purchased in bulk by the travel agency and have already benefited from scenic area discounts. Therefore, no refunds can be provided for any unused tickets. Guests are requested to cooperate by presenting relevant documents when required. If unable to comply, additional fees may apply. No refunds will be issued for voluntarily unattended attractions.
8. If the tour leader does not have a tour guide certificate, the ticket fees should be paid in cash or settled with the travel agency uniform
